CIA INTERNAL USE ONLY

1. (Unclassified - RJK) Received a call from Carol Pollack, in the district office of Representative George Miller (D., Calif.), who wished to have the address and telephone number of Air America for a constituent whose husband was killed while serving with it. I gave her the information she requested and told her that the Air America people would be happy to help her.

6. (Internal Use Only - PLC) Jay Sourwine, Counsel, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, called on behalf of James L. George, a member of Senator Bill Brock's (R., Tenn.) staff. Senator Brock is extremely concerned about the attacks upon CIA and he wants to give a speech on the Senate floor on the nature and extent of KGB operations in the United States. George is compiling material for Brock's speech and contacted Sourwine. Sourwine felt that his material is insufficient and he asked if arrangements could be made for an Agency officer familiar with KGB operations to talk to George and provide him information and possibly material that Brock can use in his speech. I told Sourwine that I would check into this for him. Sourwine asked that we call George directly (224-1481) as to what can be arranged.

CONFIDENTIAL

19. (Confidential - LLM) Charles Lombard, on the staff of Senator Barry Goldwater (R., Ariz.), called concerning Senator William E. Proxmire's (D., Wis.) statement in defense of the Agency and the colloquy between Senators Proxmire and Goldwater saying he felt this should be called to the attention of the Director and also sent to all the Directorates. I told Lombard this was already being done and that I was sure the Director would either call or write the Senator. Lombard asked if things like this were really called to the Director's attention and I told him that in fact they were and further that they were good for our morale.

20. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Tim Ingram, Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights, House Government Operations Committee staff, called very late in the evening to discuss the points of interest for the briefing tomorrow and we went over the various items, including that Mr. Colby would be the only witness, that we could not provide in this forum the documents they requested which were classified and dealt with access over which CIA oversight committees exert exclusive jurisdiction.

21. (Confidential - LLM) Spoke with Charles Snodgrass, House Appropriations, Defense Subcommittee staff, concerning his interest in various language to be used in the appropriations bill on the CIA budget; and I said we would be working on it and would have it up shortly.
